Mr. McAdoo said Treasury officials have begun consideration of amortizution plans to meet the payments of Liberty loans. The first big disbursement which the Treasury must make, back to the American people, is the redemption of War Savings Stamps which will fall due in 1923. Small savings, invested with the Government now aggregate $790,000,-000. Another series, due in 1924, has been announced, and Treasury officials expect new savings stamps to bring in more than the first issue. This too must be anticipated, Mc-

Available figures at the Treasury Available figures at the Treasury indicate that at least two more Liberty Loans must be floated. Secretary McAdoo would not say anything definitely of loans further than that the fifth would come. But appropriations by Congress would indicate that at least $9,000,000,000 more must be raised, and the view here is that there will be two loans to cover it.

Thanksgiving Prayers Asked. 5,000 members of the Independent Order, Free Sons of Israel, are asked for in a call sent out to-day by Maurice B. Hiumenthal, General Counsel of the order in America.
